

Elea Golf Club is focused on quality services with the emphasis on constant improvement and innovation. The Golf Professional works to create an environment where golf players are involved and enthusiastic, with open communications and respect for themselves, members, guests and the property.

Sir Nick Faldo designed, Elea Estate golf club is seeking a Full Time Teaching Professional.

We are looking for an enthusiastic P.G.A Professional who has a passion for teaching and providing a high quality of customer service to our membership and guests.

The successful applicant would be the sole teaching professional and would be responsible for the promotion and growth of the golf academy.

Responsibilities include: Individual & group lessons, Junior Academy, Custom fitting, assisting with operations when required and been a model professional for the club.

Qualifications

Active membership and coaching credentials issued by the PGA and recognized by the Confederation of Professional Golf

Other coaching qualifications TPI or similar an advantage

English language essential

High interpersonal skills

Where to Apply

By email : golfmanager@eleaestate.com